

Bella Heart

A collaboration of three generations of artists: Grandmother, Mother and Daughter.

Grandmother

Gloria Lee is an accomplished artist who founded the Pop Dogs line of dog-inspired art. Having grown up in San Francisco during the 1960s, she was very close to the pivotal beginnings of Pop Art. The Pop Art movement, almost a backlash of the American Impressionist movement, got its start in the Bay Area with artists like Wayne Thiebaud and Richard Diebenkorn.

Mother

Ruth-Ann Thorn was raised in a flourishing artistic family where art, music and dance were the norm. Now, she is an industry leader, and has been for over 20 years. Her expertise in the promotion and management of artist careers has led to the international acclaim of two great artists: Henry Asencio and Michael Flohr. Ruth-Ann has followed in her mother's footsteps by living a life filled with art and beauty, and a passion for promoting the arts!

Daughter

Isabella Ruth Thorn has been painting since she could hold a brush at 16 months. As they say, "The apple doesn't fall far from the tree"—Isabella is definitely her mother's daughter. Already showing promise as an artist, she has benefited greatly from the instruction of her grandmother.

Heart

Each heart represents the eternal love found within the deepest relationships. They are fun, simple, colorful and engaging. Each original painting is a mixed media design imploring the use of gesso, sculptural gels, minerals, acrylics, and paper fibers. The Swarovski Crystal, found in the center of each heart, is the signature element representing the spirit of love.

Each Bella Heart is created by the hands of all three artists.
Therefore each heart represents three aspects of eternal love!
