DANIEL MERRIAM

Daniel Merriam is one of the most renowned artists at work in America today, and we are thrilled to share two new masterworks commissioned exclusively for our collectors. Those who admire and collect Merriam's work find magic in his wistful fantasies and symbolic daydreams, and limited to an edition of only 50 each, these rare prints are sure to disappear like magic as well.

AT THE END OF MY ROPE
Edition of 50, Size 18" x 24"

"Sometimes I feel like I'm a monkey climbing through life's obstacles with my strange sense of purpose and agility, but even the monkey gets stranded at times. After a good howl I manage to use the same skills that got me into the spot to climb my way out."

TIME TRAVELER, Edition of 50, Size 24" x 36"

"Whether the monkey is me or I the monkey, he has lived forever and travels the world and beyond, keeping an eye on the magically vague reality of time. As I see myself in his eyes, I see the passing of time and the reflection of a world we know far less about than we think we do."
