

DANIEL MERRIAM

This painting is from a body of work dedicated to the mysteries of the circus performer. Although they often make it look easy, the discipline and dedication required will remain unspoken so that they may bring to us their insights of magic. As a painter, I sometimes feel like I am walking this same wire as I work. It is a constant correction to keep the balance. The will to entertain and enlighten prevails over the tapestry of mistakes we weave into success.

Daniel Merriam

Fine Art Limited Edition

150 S.N.

24" x 48"

The Grand Finale